

9 Nov 2007

Come Visit Terminal 3 During Open House

Some shops will open and offer special discounts to visitors

Starting next Monday, 12 November 2007, the public can get a sneak preview of Terminal 3 (T3) before it opens for operations early next year. During the T3 Open House, which ends on 9 December 2007, the public can visit T3 anytime from 10am to 5pm on weekdays and, 9am to 6pm on Saturdays and Sundays.

Visiting the public areas of T3 is free of charge. A T3 Open House guide brochure (available in English, Chinese, Malay and Tamil) will be available to assist visitors in exploring the new terminal on their own. To visit the transit (restricted) areas, interested members of the public may purchase an admission ticket at T3's departure hall. Each ticket costs S$1 for a self-guided tour or S$3 for a guided tour lasting about 45 minutes. Children aged 3 years old and below can enter the transit areas for free. All proceeds from the sale of admission tickets will be donated to the Singapore Cancer Society, a charitable organisation adopted by the Civil Aviation Authority of Singapore (CAAS).

To satisfy visitors' hunger pangs, some food & beverage (F&B) outlets will be open specially for the public during the T3 Open House. These include Bengawan Solo, Coffee Club, MacDonald's, Wang Café, The Coffee Bean & Tea Leaf, and Tosto Café. In addition, shops such as Perfumes & Cosmetics by Nuance-Watson, Kidz Time, The Body Shop and Tango Mango The Gift Shop, will also open. These retail shops and F&B outlets are located in the public areas of T3.

Some outlets are having special promotions. For example, Coffee Club is offering 30% off on all food and beverages; Wang Café has a 'Fantastic $3 Combo Deal' on its menu; Nuance-Watson is giving away a $30 voucher with any purchase at its Perfumes & Cosmetics outlet (terms and conditions apply).

Interested members of the public can visit www.changiairport.com/t3 for more details on T3 Open House.

Enclosure : Fact Sheet on T3 Open House